

CALL FOR PAPERS

NJABA's 17th Annual Conference

April 1, 2022

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

November 5, 2021

The Annual Conference will include an invited keynote address and presentations focused on research relevant to the field of applied behavior analysis. NJABA seeks to provide its members with conference content that educates attendees and invigorates scholarly behavior analytic work in New Jersey. To that end, presentation proposals on conceptual, experimental, and applied behavior analysis are desired.

Submissions especially welcomed related to the following topics:

Treatment of ADHD

OBM

Diversity

Ethics

Supervision

General Education

Higher Education

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR PROPOSALS

- Submit all proposals online. See the links below for each presentation type.
- We recommend creating a text file with all of the required information that can be copied and pasted into the submission fields.
- The text included in your submission will be used in the conference program as written. Please take care in the preparation of your proposal.
- Symposium and poster proposals must minimally include preliminary data. All uploaded graphs must be in PDF or MS Word format.
- A minimum of one presenter/author must have a Ph.D. or Master's degree in applied behavior analysis or a closely related field. Additional credentials are required to provide BACB CEs (see below).
- Presentations are 50 or 75 minutes in duration. Efforts will be made to provide presenters with their desired time slot, although no guarantees can be made.
- By submitting a proposal, authors are attesting that they are available to present their work at the NJABA Conference on April 1, 2022.
- Conference registration is required of all presenters. All costs associated with attendance are the responsibility of the presenters.
- Not all proposals will be accepted. Proposals will be reviewed to ensure that they are behavior analytic in nature and to evaluate the quality of the proposed event. Based on our venue, there are a limited number of event slots available.
- Submit any questions about the submission process to info@njaba.org

PRESENTATION TYPES

Symposia: A series of 2-4 presentations on a related topic with an identified chair. Symposia proposals may be submitted with or without a discussant.
